

FIND to EARN

This feature alerts app users that an animal has been lost in the geographic area where they are located.

A person who encounters a lost animal will be able to perform an identification with animal facial recognition and warn the owner of the presence of his animal.

After validation, an ANTK reward will be sent directly to the person who found your animal.

